SOCIAL MEDIA

Q4 Highlight: Led all of the Big Ten in likes, comments, and shares on Facebook.

Highlights of Quarter 4

- Handed out Hawkeye gift bags to several students we connected with on Twitter during finals week as an encouragement. Our gesture made it onto social media and spread to tens of thousands of people.

- Extremely successful graduation weekend, interacting with hundreds of students and parents on social media.

OSC QUARTERLY IMPACT REPORT: Q4 | FY18

NOW.UIOWA.EDU

Q4 Highlight: Information? News you can use? Recognition? We’ve heard that’s what the audience wants, and the stats bear out that feedback. Internal messaging continues to get clicks, with the salary decision and construction moratorium ranking among the top six Q4 articles.

Top Five Stories of Quarter 4

1. 23,704 “What’s going on when babies twitch in their sleep?” (July 25, 2016)
2. 6,195 “How schizophrenia affects the brain” (Sept. 10, 2013)
3. 5,521 “University of Iowa graduates to celebrate commencement” (May 2, 2018)
4. 5,068 “UI students named to dean’s list for spring 2018” (June 28, 2018)
5. 4,475 “State funding declines, salary decisions on hold until January” (May 10, 2018)
Q4 Highlight: We covered graduation in many ways: a statistical overview of the graduating class, features on a handful of stellar grads, and a visual recap of the festivities. Three of our top 6 stories were commencement-themed.

Top Three Stories of Quarter 4

1. 4,803  Get to know UI spring 2018 graduates
2. 4,281  Grad profile: Alyssa and Olivia Ray
3. 4,213  Dance Marathon recap

Q4 Highlight: This quarter, we created a video, Celebrating Iowa, that played at 14 spring commencement ceremonies. The three-minute video tapped into the collective memories and shared experiences of the graduating class. This was the first time the university has provided a consistent video message for all UI graduates and their families to help build a greater sense of community and connection at this important milestone in their lives.
